

HUME'N WRITES Stories Competition

The world recently celebrated the 60th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights (UDHR) on December 10 2008. To mark this occasion we'd like to hear from YOU!

Who can enter?

The competition is open to everyone who lives, works or has a strong connection with the City of Hume irrespective of their age.

How?

1. Be Creative- Imagination is more important than knowledge!

We are collecting stories (word limit 1,500), artworks, photography, short films and poetry that pertain to human rights. Entries can include a vision for the future, personal stories or how you interpret human rights and their relevance for the world today.

2. You will be rewarded!

1st prize: Laptop

2nd prize: Ipod

3rd prize: Shogun Mountain Bike

Runners up prizes include HOYTS cinema vouchers, bookstore vouchers, Etiko fairtrade soccer balls and MORE!

3. Hume'N Writes Stories publication and launch

Even if you don't win a prize we will be selecting some stories to be included in a publication to be launched in August 2009 (optional).

Prizes will be presented to winners of the competition at this launch.

4. Deadline for entries

The competition opens on Monday the 2nd of February and all entries must be in NO LATER than Monday the 22nd of June 2009 at 5pm.

Please fill out a registration form from our website www.banksiagardens.org.au and hand it in with your application. No entries will be accepted without a registration form.
